COURTNEY PITT

FORMER FOOTBALLER/FOOTBALL COACH

INDUSTRY PROS	INDUSTRY CONS
Practical role where sportspeople can use their own experiences to inform others	Can be quite low paid to start off with
Suits sportspeople with good communication and interpersonal skills	You might be working with all age groups and abilities, patience required at all times
Term time roles mean there are potentially increased holiday periods	Often there is a fair amount of administration, recording and paperwork included in these roles so you must be prepared for this side of the role too
Can be an amazingly satisfying and fulfilling role, helping others to learn, develop and improve.
